

62 DAYS

Film Screening and Panel Discussion

Tuesday, November 27
5:30-7:30 PM
Fordham University
Lincoln Center Campus
McMahon 109
155 W. 60th St.

62 DAYS is a documentary film about Marlise Muñoz, a brain-dead pregnant woman whose family was forced to keep her on life support against her wishes because of a little known law that states “a person may not withdraw or withhold life-sustaining treatment...from a pregnant patient.”

This film follows the Muñoz family’s journey as they fight to change this controversial law, showing the human story behind the headlines. The film screening will be followed by a panel discussion.

Panelists

Rebecca Haimowitz, Director and Producer of 62 Days

Lynn Paltrow, JD, Founder and Executive Director, National Advocates for Pregnant Women

Elizabeth Yuko, PhD, bioethicist, writer, and Adjunct Professor of Ethics, Fordham University

Moderated by Daisy Deomampo, PhD, Assistant Professor of Anthropology, Fordham University

Co-sponsored by the Departments of Sociology & Anthropology and Communication and Media Studies, the Program in Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, and the Deans of Fordham College Rose Hill and Fordham College Lincoln Center.

For further information or to RSVP, please contact Prof. Daisy Deomampo at ddeomampo@fordham.edu.